

Our Trip To The Post Office

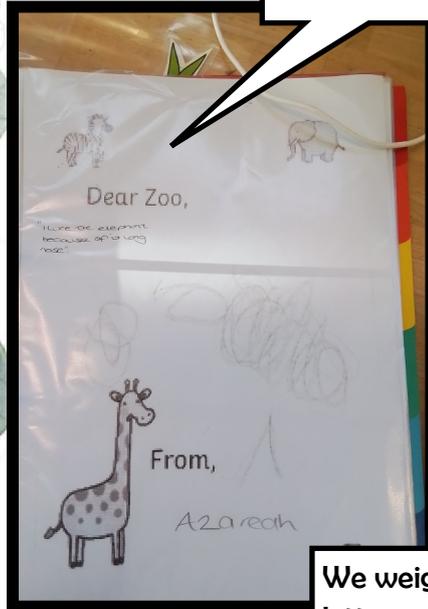

I sit on the bus

We putting stamp on

I like the elephant because of its long nose

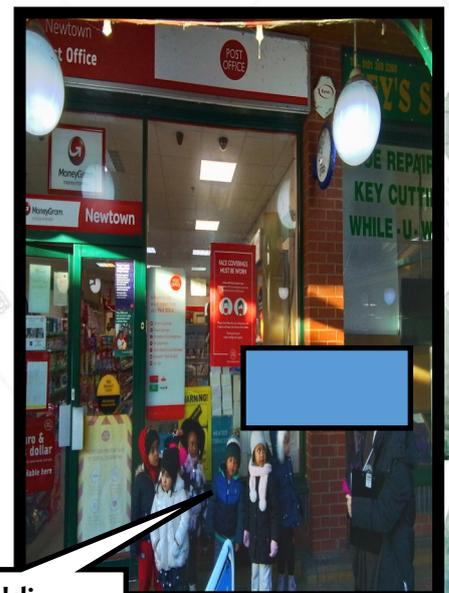

We weigh the letter

We see aldi

Send letter here

The children in green having been writing letters to the zoo telling them all about which animal is their favorite animal. Azareah said her favorite in the elephant. Safiya said her favorite is the frog as its jumpy. We then took our letters to the post office to post them to the zoo. The children enjoyed their trip the office they got to the letters getting weighed and a stamp being put on before it being taken by the post women to get sent off to the zoo. We look forward to hearing back from the zoo soon.
