

Chatter Matters Parent Work Shop

Squeeze it

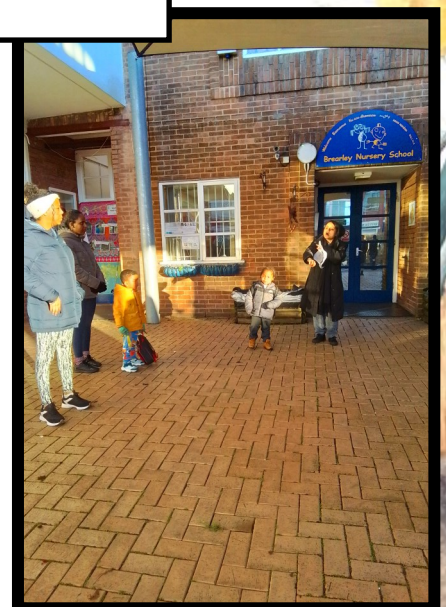

Boing boing

A circle is round

Brumm brumm

Tick tok

Today we had a work shop for parents and children to attend. Chatter matters is a work shop to help promote children's speech and language and to give ideas of activities parents can do at home with their children. We had different stations in these station were the following- environmental sounds, voice sounds, write dance, play dough, Mr togue and songs and rhymes. Yoseif mum said "this help me". Bitanya's mum said "Good to have ideas".