

World Book Day

Miss Polly had a dolly

Waya Ali

Brown bear brown bear

Princess

Today the children celebrated world book day. We started the day with different nursery rhymes station the children and the parents went to each station and sang the songs at the station Green Room sang the wheels on the bus and waya Ali. Megan kindly came to read the children a story she read them Brown bear brown bear what do you see. The children really enjoyed the story.