

A visit from the Police

On date December, Red Room were visited by two special guests. PC Tyrone and PC Louise came in to speak to the children about the importance of keeping and being safe. They explained to the children why it is important to stay with their parents when out and about in the local neighbourhood, such as the supermarket, in the park or the big bodies water. They also explained to the children why they should never approach large dogs or strangers. Finally, they reminded the children that they should not play next to the busy roads. The children sung their road safety song. "Stop, look and listen". The police officers then let the children to try on the hats and be policeman or policewomen. They all enjoyed having the police coming to the nursery, listening to the story and learning about keeping themselves safe as they have the right to be safe.
