

Special Visitor: Author Lauren Heneghan Allain Visits Brearley

On 19th March 2026, the children had a special visitor at Brearley. They met the children's author Lauren Heneghan Allain. They learned that she is an author who writes children's books.

The children said hello to Lauren and were excited to meet her. Lauren asked the children to put on their listening ears as she read them a story. She read two books: Jojo Grangran and Maya and Marley.

The children really enjoyed listening to her stories. To finish, everyone sang "Old MacDonalD Had a Farm." The children gave Lauren a big clap and said thank you for coming.

Children's Comments:

Makhissa said, "This story is about a farm."

Esme said, "We went to a farm."

Hunter said, "Laura is also my mummy's name."

Elhan said, "You write books."

Somtochukwu said, "I like this story."

