

Chinese New Year

The children in the Red Room have been celebrating Chinese New Year by taking part in a range of activities. This year, the Chinese calendar focuses on the Year of the Horse. The children discussed the importance of colours such as red and yellow and practised number writing using Chinese numerals. They also created Chinese lanterns using tissue paper.

In addition, the children watched a Chinese dragon dance and developed an understanding of why Chinese New Year is celebrated and how people in China celebrate this special event.

Children's Comments:

Vihaan said, "We are learning about Chinese New Year."

Rawand said, "I am dancing."

Minoas said, "Horse."

Asma said, "I made a lantern."

Mahmoud said, "Yellow and red are Chinese New Year colours."

Raghad said, "Dragon dancing."

Bitanya said "They eat noodles"

Makhisaa said "They have a big party".